Delaware Department of Justice Sentencing Announcement

Wilmington, DE – The Delaware Department of Justice today announced sentences in the following criminal cases:

John Cameron, age 42 of Claymont, pled guilty on August 8, 2008 in New Castle County Superior Court to 1st Degree Murder.

On August 2, 2007, the defendant attempted to rob a gas station in Claymont, Delaware. During the robbery attempt Cameron stabbed the store clerk, resulting in the death of the victim. Cameron was arrested by Delaware State Police on August 2, 2007.

Cameron was sentenced today in New Castle County Superior Court by Judge Joseph Slights to life in prison without the possibility of parole. In addition, Cameron was ordered to have no contact with the victim's family.

David Morrill, age 53 of Millsboro, pled guilty on August 22, 2008 in Sussex County Superior Court to two counts Felony Endangering of a Child, 3rd Degree Unlawful Sexual Contact, and Providing Alcohol to a Minor.

On March 8, 2008, Morrill invited two male juveniles to stay at his home with him. During the visit he provided alcohol to both and had a sexual relationship with the one of the juveniles. Morrill is a registered sex offender as a result of convictions in 1990 and again in 1997. Morrill was arrested on March 20, 2008 by Delaware State Police.

Morrill was sentenced today in Sussex County Superior Court by Judge T. Henley Graves to 3 years in prison during which time he must undergo sex offender treatment. His incarceration will be followed by 1 year of intense probation. He must register as a Tier 3 registered sex offender and will have GPS monitoring upon his release from prison. In addition, Morrill will also be prohibited from having contact with any minor without a parent being present.

Gary Waters, age 44 of Frankford, pled guilty on July 23, 2008 in Sussex County Superior Court to Felony Resisting Arrest and Possession of Marijuana.

Waters was stopped by Millsboro Police on February 22 for driving a vehicle with expired registration. After learning that his car would be towed he became combative. When officers arrested Waters for the traffic offenses he resisted arrest, injuring a Millsboro Police Officer. A subsequent inventory search of Water's car revealed a bag of marijuana.

Waters was sentenced today in Sussex County Superior Court by Judge Scott E. Bradley to 90 days in prison followed by completion of a drug treatment program. Upon completion of the program Waters was ordered to undergo 18 months of intense probation while continuing drug treatment through the Aftercare Program
